Shakespeare for Schools Festival

This week year 4 had the privilege of performing a Midsummer Night's Dream at the Royal and Derngate Theatre in Northampton. We thoroughly enjoyed acting on a real stage in front of our family and other schools. Lily Newson did a great job as technical director delivering all of our sound and light cues on the night. Thank you to all parents who helped their children learn their lines off by heart – a great feat!

Pride in Reading Book Review Competition

The David Ross Education Trust is inviting pupils to submit fabulous book reviews for the chance to win some incredible prizes. They are looking for book reviews that are creative, so use your imagination and think about how you can make your book review stand out from the crowd! All book reviews must be based on our recommended reading list. Prizes for the winners will include a £50 book voucher and £100 towards your school library.

Please remember to visit our school website regularly for useful information <http://www.falconershillacademy.co.uk/>
